

GIRL SCOUT COUNCIL OF NORTHWEST MISSISSIPPI

CODE OF ETHICS

In Girl Scouting, the leader has the most contact with the girls and therefore the most impact on them. The examples of attitudes and actions set by the leader WILL influence the lives of the girls.

In recognition of her responsibility to and for the girls as a troop leader, agrees to:

- Follow the policies, standards, and procedures of the Girl Scout Council of Northwest Mississippi and the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A..
- Follow all the Girl Scout safety and security guidelines, standards, and activity checkpoints as outlined in the current Safety-Wise.
- Not smoke in the presence of girls, use or possess alcohol in the presence of girls, use or possess illegal substance, or abuse prescription or over the counter drugs.
- Not use any kind of behavior that shows disregard for local, state, and federal laws and ordinances.
- Not use any type of abusive language, foul language or language that shows disregard for racial, ethnic, and cultural difference.

I have read and understand the above Code of Ethics. I understand that I can be relieved of my duties for any violations.
